Fla. C of C Experts Write Congress About Tax Revisions

Florida State Chamber of Commerce will accept an invitation given it by the House Ways and Means Committee of the congress to submit written statements on taxation revision for consideration during a hearing which opens at Washington on January 7 and lasts for 30 days. Harold Cole, executive vice president of the organization said today that three briefs will be submitted, "by men well qualified to speak."
In his letter to Cole, the committee's chairman, Jere

Cooper, said: "The burden of taxation on our citizens is heavy. It is my hope that some relief can be achieved next year as a result of forthcoming hearings and study."

Decreasing Numbers And Increasing Size Marks Florida Farms Now

U. S. farms are decreasing in number and increasing in size. Farms in Florida are no exception in the general rule. There are now approximately 62,600 farms in Florida, compared to 75,000 in 1937. The year in which farms in this State reached their peak in numbers.
This comparison is based on revised estimates of census figures up to 1956, as reported by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. In 1910 Florida farms numbered 51,000, according to the USDA report which gives numbers of farms by States for each year since then.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Flemming of Williston; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snyder; Pahokee; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Snyder and children of Canal Point; Mr. and Mrs. Dery Johnson of Fairbanks, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Brannan of Eau Gallie.

Mrs. Prevatt Gives Party For SS Class

Mrs. Frank Prevatt entertained Monday night at her home with a party for her intermediate girls and their friends. The group played games and punch and coffee were served. To Sherry Miller, Jerry Edwards, Rebecca Woodham, Gordon Corbin, Shirley Wilder, Lynn Corbin, Sharon Prevatt and David Binkley.

DOCTOR RICHMOND

Dr. Richmond, a four-year veteran of World War II, did his undergraduate work at Yale University and received his professional degree from the University of Rochester School of Medicine.

His internship was at the University of Miami. The doctor's two-year practice in the Glades as an associate with the Belle Glade Medical Center has brought him a host of patients who regret his leaving the community; however, they appreciate his efforts toward furthering his professional career.

COLLEGE ADMINISTRATOR

Others present were John Lee, Emory University-Oxford; Karen Allison, Purdue; Walt Mosley, Stetson; Randy Way, Paul Willer, Jo Margaret Parson, Jeanne Willis, Florida State University.

NEGRO CAPTURED (Continued from Page One) released last September from the state prison at Raiford after serving a three year hitch for breaking and entering Henry Blum's store at Raderville (The Ditch) in 1952. He was arrested then by Constable B. F. Prescott and Deputy Sheriff Ray Howard.

Newman said Shelton would be questioned thoroughly about other incidents before he was taken to West Palm Beach to await trial.

Shower Compliments (Continued from Page One) The serving table held a manager scene and an arrangement of poinsettias and Christmas trees at the end and a coffee service at the other end. Miss Arlene Kirchman and Miss E. Friedheim, sister of the honoree poured.

Gifts for the prospective novitiates were presented in an open parcel with the number in white on the handle. Approximately 40 guests called during the morning.

Garden Club Meeting (Continued from Page One) The Belle Glade Garden Club will hold its regular meeting January 9 at 3 p. m. at the Community Club house at 3 p. m.

The program will be a horticulture workshop with Mrs. Irving Zump as chairman. Short talks will also be made on horticulture and on the relation of the club's indebtedness to this matter.

The $344.00 water plant additions started this year will bring the city water to perfection when completed and provide for the further growth of the city's water consumption.

No less than six miles of streets have been paved in 1957 with plans for still more improvement on other streets. Construction varies for the city is covered separately in this issue.

DECEMBER PERMITS (Continued from Page One) Five public or church permits were issued for $41.00. There were 19 demolitions.

Listed in the December report for new homes were George Scarborough, 209 NW 14th St., $8,500; George Dupere, 117 SE 6th St., $13,500; S. B. Collins, 205 NW Ave. D, $26,000.

Business permits were issued to Junior T. Harris, 214 W. Y.

NEWS ABOUT GLADES CHURCHES

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

—Matthew 5 - 16.

WORSHIP TOGETHER EVERY WEEK

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY

Student Night At Baptist Church

"We Believe . . . And So We Speak" was the theme of Student Night at First Baptist Church last Sunday night. Jim Bill Geer was moderator for the program and other students participating were Reginald Jones, Leo James, Walter Seale, Jr., Franklin Jones, Sam Armella Browne. All students were recognized in the evening service. There are twenty-nine students in colleges and universities who are members of this church. After the service the group enjoyed a fellowship time at the home of Miss Mary Lou Pitts.

College students home for the holidays were honored at a supper last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McAllister. A group of about twenty enjoyed hamburgers on the grill and a fun period afterwards.

The pastor, W. W. Malcolm, will be preaching and teaching from the book of Hosea during the month of January. This will be the annual January Bible Study.

The choir will resume regular rehearsals next week. The children's choir will be working on a unit entitled, "My Church." L. Wendell Carpenter, Director of Music stated.

On Jan. 4 he will speak on the topic, "Introduction to Christian Evidences."

Sunday morning, Jan. 5, Mr. Lynn will speak on "Revelation: The Seven Seals." A study of the 4-5-6 chapters of Revelation with the emphasis on the throne scene. The main lesson is that God rules the universe and not His created beings: The Father with Christ the Lamb is supreme. Together they are worthy of all the praise and glory and honor.

Religious Census Planned At S. Bay

The First Baptist Church of South Bay plans to make a religious census on Jan. 12. Members are urged to volunteer for this work by giving their names to W. G. Bowen, on Jan. 6-10 members of the church will be studying the "Book of Hosea." Books may be purchased from Mrs. Helen McKinley.

Rev. L. C. Woolridge and W. G. Bowen will attend the Big Lake Association Executive Board Meeting at Moore Haven at 8:00 p. m. Jan. 7. A letter read from Clyde Duncan, field secretary, revealed that last year conversions in the Association were on the ratio of 1 to 16. This year they will endeavor to bring the ratio 1 to 10 one person won to Christ for every 10 church members. W. W. Forsythe will teach the study book in the absence of Mr. Woolridge.

Quite a number of Sunday School teachers and members were absent from church on account of the flu, the congregation was asked to remember them and also Joe Hester in St. Mary's Hospital, who underwent surgery on Monday.

What's In A Name? Sermon At St. John's

"What's In A Name?" will be the sermon topic on Sunday Jan. 5, by Father John Clarence Petrie, at the Episcopal Church of St. John the Apostle, Belle Glade. While the secular world is aware of the new calendar year the Church, explains Father Petrie, is carrying out in its Liturgy the infancy and early life of Christ from His circumcision when He received His name up to the time of His baptism at the hands of John.

On Monday January 6, Feast of the Epiphany, the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:30 by the vicar in the Belle Glade church. The day celebrates the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles in the coming of the three wise men who represented the non-Jewish world worshipping at the feet of the King of the Jews.

Lutheran Church To Have New Minister

Announcement is made by St. Peter's Lutheran Church here of the arrival of a new minister on Sunday who will replace Rev. W. S. Schoech, who has been coming out each Sunday from West Palm Beach. Rev. August Koerber, a retired minister from Penny Farms will preach his first sermon at the morning service on Sunday, Jan. 5 and will make his home in Belle Glade.

Garretts Move To Jax Beach Church

The Rev. H. E. Garrett has been appointed by Bishop John W. Bromcomb, Bishop of the Jacksonville Area of the Methodist Church, to serve the Jacksonville, Fla. church. This mid-conference appointment was occasioned by the sudden death of Dr. A. V. Rudy who had been the Pastor of the Jacksonville Beach Church since June of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett and son, Timothy, moved to their new appointment on Monday, Dec. 30th.

Rev. Garrett was in his fourth year as pastor of the Community Methodist Church, having moved here from Avon Park in June 1954. While in Belle Glade, he proved himself an able energetic Church leader.

During his pastorate here the church membership grew from 408 to 628. Forty three babies were baptized.

Among other marked accomplishments of Mr. Garrett's pastorate here in the completion and dedication of the new $195,000 completely air-conditioned building, including the sanctuary, parsonage, class rooms and office. In October of 1954 an intensive fund raising campaign was launched which proved highly successful and on December 8 of this year the building was dedicated free of all debt.

Mrs. Garrett was active in the work of the Women's Society of Christian Service, having directed the Missionary Education of the West Palm Beach district for the past year and half. She also taught adults in the Sunday School and served as co-leader for Youth Groups.

Churches Of Christ Scientist

The spiritual basis of true health and holiness will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon, entitled "God" will consist of readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlated selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and Founder of Christian Science.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (48:1): "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of His holiness."

The following will be read from Science and Health (518:19): "Love groweth to the least spiritual idea might, immortality, and goodness, which shine through all as the blossom shines through the bud. All

Passion Play At Lake Wales Set

Preparations for the 1958 season of the Black Hills Passion Play are being stepped up this week in anticipation of the Jan. 26 opening performance. This will be the sixth year that the world-famous biblical drama has been presented.

Forty one performances will be given between Jan. 26 and Easter Sunday, April 6, at Lake Wales. The play will be presented every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 7:30 p. m. and every Sunday there will be a twilight performance at 6 p. m.

Already tons of costumes, lighting equipment and scenery have arrived at the amphitheater and the Passion Play trucks have returned to South Dakota for another load of stage effects and livestock.

Several members of the professional cast have arrived and others will be arriving daily. Josef Meier, Christus and director of the spectacle, has notified amphitheatre authorities that he will be in Lake Wales by Jan. 13.

Advance reservations are being received at the box office and tickets will be mailed beginning Jan. 20. Inquiries may be addressed to Passion Play Amphitheatre, Box 71, Lake Wales, Florida.

New Adventist Officers Begin Duties Saturday

The Belle Glade Seventh Day Adventist Sabbath School and church officers elected and nominated by the church at large recently will begin their new duties Jan. 4.

Elected were Elder, Dr. G. R. Randolph; Deacon, Floyd Erickson; deaconesses, Mrs. Marie Lee and Mrs. Justice Erickson; clerk, Mrs. William Norman; and Sabbath School officers: For Those, O Lord, hast not forsaken them who seek Thee—(Psalm 9, 10).

Most happy and blessed is he who, early in life, has experienced a real demonstration of God's love and mercy, through revelation and prayer—and who then, having sought and found Our Heavenly Father, never for an instant thereafter departs from Him and His goodness all the years of his being. . . . You few of us, unhappily, seek God and His grace until our course is almost run.

The Old Covenant, also known as the Law of Moses, was added because of transgressions and was to last until Christ should come (Gal. 3:19). This old law was not a fulfillment of God's plan for redemption for it did not provide a plan for redemption or remission of sins (cf. Heb. 10:4; Gal. 3, 4). Hence, the Law of Moses was not adequate for man's needs.

Since the Law of Moses has been repealed, there are consequences if we accept anything from it. Christ would profit us nothing and we would be debtors to keep the whole law. Christ becomes of no effect to us when we seek to be justified by the Law. We are fallen from grace. (cf. Gal. 3:1-6).

According to a recent survey made by FSU for the Florida Development Commission, 7,618,000 persons visited the Sunshine State last year and spent one and one-quarter billion dollars.

Whether you be man or woman you will need anything in this world without courage. It is the greatest quality of the mind next to honor.

The Two Covenants

The Bible divides itself into two major groups, known as the Old Testament and the New Testament. The word "testament" simply means covenant, hence the Old Covenant and the New Covenant.

Christ came to fulfill the will of God. In fulfilling that will, He took away the first covenant that He might establish the second (Heb. 10:9). For Jeremiah the prophet had foretold of a new covenant to be established (Jer. 31:31-34). When speaking of Jesus Christ, the writer of Hebrews quotes Jeremiah's prophecy as having been fulfilled (Heb. 8:8-13; 10:15-18).

The first covenant was not faultless, so price was paid for a second (Heb. 8:7). We are no longer under the Old Covenant, for it was cast out (Gal. 3:23-25), abolished (Eph. 2:15-16), and taken out of the way and nailed to the cross (Col. 2:14-15). Since we are no longer under the Old Covenant, its purpose for us is to help us understand more fully God's great scheme of redemption as it has now been fulfilled in Christ Jesus. The Old Testament also serves as an example to us to live righteous lives (1 Cor. 10:1-13).

The Old Covenant, also known as the Law of Moses, was added because of transgressions and was to last until Christ should come (Gal. 3:19). This old law was not a fulfillment of God's plan for redemption for it did not provide a plan for redemption or remission of sins (cf. Heb. 10:4; Gal. 3, 4). Hence, the Law of Moses was not adequate for man's needs.

Since the Law of Moses has been repealed, there are consequences if we accept anything from it. Christ would profit us nothing and we would be debtors to keep the whole law. Christ becomes of no effect to us when we seek to be justified by the Law. We are fallen from grace. (cf. Gal. 3:1-6).
